Re. United States v. Anderson Badia
24 Cr. 642 (LGS)

LORNA G. SCHOFIELD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Dear Judge Schofield,

I write to respectfully request that the Court modify the conditions of Mr. Badia's pretrial release to permit Mr. Badia to travel to the District of Connecticut, subject to the other conditions of his release. The Government and Pretrial Services do not object to this request.

As the Court knows, Mr. Badia was released subject to strict conditions at his presentment on September 13, 2024. On May 13, 2025, in light of his history of compliance with all conditions of his release, the Court modified Mr. Badia's conditions to replace home detention with a curfew as set by Pretrial Services. See Doc. 27. In this application, and for the same reasons as set forth in our prior request, we respectfully ask that Mr. Badia be permitted to travel to the District of Connecticut—where his family has a home—subject to the other conditions of his release, including the curfew condition.

We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
